

BEFORE THE IOWA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSIONER

MICHAEL NASSIF,

Claimant,

vs.

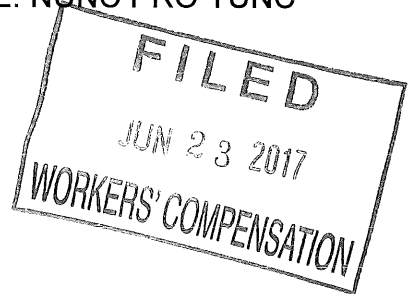

ANAMOSA STATE PENITENTIARY,

STATE OF IOWA,

Self-Insured,
Employer, Defendant.

File No. 5056715

ORDER RE: NUNC PRO TUNC

An application for an order nunc pro tunc was filed by the claimant on an arbitration decision issued on June 14, 2017.

The motion points out that the industrial finding and order do not match.

IT IS ORDERED that the order be changed to reflect fifty (50) weeks.

The motion also points out that the rate in the decision and Order do not match.

IT IS ORDERED that the weekly benefit rate in the Conclusions of Law be changed to reflect the correct rate of five hundred forty-six and 27/100 dollars ($546.27).

Signed and filed this 23rd day of June, 2017.

STAN MCELDERRY
DEPUTY WORKERS'
COMPENSATION COMMISSIONER

Copies To:

Robert R. Rush
Attorney at Law
PO Box 637
Cedar Rapids, IA 52406-0637
bob@rushnicholson.com

Sarah Brandt
Assistant Attorney General
Special Litigation
Hoover State Office Bldg.
Des Moines, IA 50319-0106
Sarah.brandt@iowa.gov

SRM/kjw